

returning to our abstracted days shrunk contours / condensed spectacular :: dailiness as defeat to the collective relations for living / remade by what hands could give the skills we honed to bear each others' bodies physically_[b] distanced all we've forged in scarce collections of living pulling & planting, hoisted & hammered, stirred served

rents tense bear our necks turn homes / ocean & ashen

fork what plans the wage has for us talk & trial frayheld scope in biopolitic

— take intentions filing body through doors becomes the day we see these creatures mediating what of ourselves we bring back to each other „ how we've been & weathered the depth of the wrecking of our lives this whole quiet at water lines we relearned to sing / sense re/appropriate drawn nearness & bubbling suns

ripple scarce so slight the skills we honed bear bodies each other across difference — proximities scuff by flow / fearstate embedding further walls & the already disappeared / torn floors massified disposable threaded by the fork in the bars de/sol/ace the power our selves place in the everyday, what will continue to survive us together timbre lain scopes loss out toward assembly, relearning words & chants & the matter of us

languages
, motion
of arms,
joints, bones, hold what grief / feelings break to magnetise,

by the violence further wished for us,
its torrid hands wrung, these bonds abstracted

kept to instigate

stranger, trust takes forms atoned , meeting where a waterline sibling, how do you name yourself
